Green It Hub – GitHub-WS'2020 is a peer-reviewed international Sustainable Computing workshop focusing on advanced research of Sustainable Computing.

The Workshop occupies contributions in all aspects of sustainable computing, reflecting modern engineering and technological solutions of the information technology era in the sustainable development of society. Green IT, or IT sustainability, is the study and practice of environmentally sustainable computing or IT. The goals of green computing are similar to green chemistry: reduce the use of hazardous materials, maximize energy efficiency during the product's lifetime, the recyclability or biodegradability of defunct products and factory waste. Green computing is important for all classes of systems, ranging from handheld systems to large-scale data centers.

Let's to come, show your best practice, and envisage your future actions at the front line of high-tech education.

The Workshop languages

The main language of GitHub-WS'2020 is English. Submissions in any other language will be rejected without review. Presentations in any other language are accepted.

List of Topics

- Sustainable computing
- Software development for a sustainable society;
- Information systems and technologies in the society sustainable development
- Cloud technologies and IoT in the society sustainable development

Submission Guidelines

We solicit submission of original work, not previously published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

Authors are invited to submit full (6-12 pages) papers via EasyChair submission page at <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=icsf2020> by February 15, 2020.

The image shows a screenshot of a web browser displaying the EasyChair login page for ICSF-2020. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=icsf2020>. The page features the EasyChair logo (a stylized 'EC' in yellow and black) and the tagline 'The world for scientists'. A navigation menu includes 'Help / Log in'. The main heading is 'Log in to EasyChair for ICSF-2020'. Below this, a message states: 'EasyChair uses cookies for user authentication. To use EasyChair, you should allow your browser to save cookies from easychair.org.' The login form consists of two input fields: 'User name:' and 'Password:'. A red 'Log in' button is positioned below the fields. At the bottom of the form, there are three links: 'If you have no EasyChair account, create an account', 'Forgot your password? click here', and 'Problems to log in? click here'.

Submitted papers will be peer-reviewed by three reviewers on the basis of technical quality, relevance, originality, significance, and clarity. If necessary, a fourth, additional reviewer will be involved. The Program Committee will use these reviews to determine which papers will be accepted for presentation at the conference. The result of the reviewing will be announced to the submitting authors by email, along with reviewer comments, if any.

Papers must break new ground and provide complete and substantial support for the reported results and conclusions. Successful submissions typically represent a major advance for the field of sustainable computing in to any of the areas listed as the topics of interest.

In case you have never worked with the EasyChair system before, and therefore do not have an EasyChair account please create it by clicking "create an account" link at the login form. Please follow simple instructions for creating your account, then log in to the EasyChair.

You will be asked to sign up for The International Conference on Sustainable Futures: Environmental, Technological, Social and Economic Matters (ICSF).

5. Self-citations should not exceed 10 %.
6. Authors are encouraged to refer to the Committee on Publishing Ethics (COPE) for all aspects of publication ethics (<http://publicationethics.org/>) and to strictly conform to the ethical rules described on <https://www.e3s-conferences.org/about-the-journal/publishing-policies-ethics>, in particular:
  - A single study is not split up into several parts to increase the quantity of submissions and submitted to various edited book projects or journals or to one journal over time (e.g. "salami-publishing").
  - No data have been fabricated or manipulated (including images) to support the manuscript's conclusions.
  - No data, text, or theories by others are presented as if they were the authors own ("plagiarism"). Proper acknowledgements to other works must be given (this includes material that is closely copied (near verbatim), summarized and/or paraphrased), quotation marks are used for verbatim copying of material, and permissions are secured for material that is copyrighted.
  - Consent to submit has been received from all co-authors and responsible authorities at the institute/organization where the work has been carried out before the work is submitted.
  - Authors whose names appear on the submission have contributed sufficiently to the scientific work and therefore share collective responsibility and accountability for the results.
